COUNSELING AND TRAINING FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

We have experience working with and training foreign sovereign governments on a host of matters, including legal and regulatory reform; rule of law; trade; attracting foreign investment; treaty formation, interpretation, and enforcement; international expropriation law; foreign investment disputes; border disputes; constitutional reforms; and recovery of stolen antiquities.

We have also participated in numerous training sessions for government ministers and ministerial level officials, foreign judges, technical staff, and attorneys on a variety of legal topics including international law, regulatory reforms, trade law, due process, foreign investment, and criminal law.

We have also lectured on many international legal topics at The World Bank, Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC), the American Society of International Law (ASIL), the George Washington School of Law, and the International Law Institute.

Our experience includes:

- Counseled a government minister on international land and maritime boundary issues in Southeast Asia
- Counseled and trained senior officials of the Cambodian National Petroleum Authority (CNPA) on regulatory reforms and foreign investment in Cambodia's energy sector
- Trained officials of the Turkmenistan State Agency for the Management and Use of Hydrocarbon Resources (SAMUHR) on regulatory reforms and foreign investment
- Trained judges and officials from Bulgaria, Ghana, Nigeria, and Tanzania on international investment law
- Advised and represented East African country in international arbitrations
- Advised and represented West African country on foreign investment dispute
- Advised Dominican Republic on trade capacity building

- Advised Barbados on trade capacity building
- Advised MOFTEC (now MOFCOM) and SETC officials in the Peoples Republic of China on trade revisions related to WTO accession
- Trained delegation from several CARICOM countries on WTO law under OAS consultancy
- Trained Egyptian and PRC officials on administering trade remedy regime
- Addressed delegation of judges and party officials from PRC on legal and political
