INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION

CHOHARIS | GLOBAL | SOLUTIONS is an international law firm that specializes in international dispute resolution and foreign investment issues. Our attorneys have represented foreign governments, foreign corporations, a U.S. government chartered bank, a leading U.S. hedge fund, and U.S. corporations throughout the world in a wide range of disputes involving U.S. and foreign law, as well as public and private international law. Our firm specializes in cases involving high profile or politically sensitive matters, complex or novel legal questions, public policy issues, or disputes in multiple forums in the United States and overseas. The following is a list of select representations:

- Successfully defended an East African, state-owned telecommunications company in a commercial dispute brought by an American company in U.S. federal court
- Successfully restructured $600 million project finance debt on behalf of a U.S. government-chartered bank in a potential expropriation by a Southeast Asian nation for breach of contract and regulatory takings in violation of international law
- Achieved settlement of U.S. litigation on behalf of a leading U.S. beef producer seeking access to closed Asian markets on an issue so sensitive that it led to rioting in a capital city and almost toppled the government of a close U.S. ally
- Successfully avoided any liability for a West African country in its dispute with U.S. investors over an alleged expropriation and unpaid license, taxes, and fees
- Prevailed on behalf of an East African country before an international arbitration tribunal charged with adjudicating alleged violations of international humanitarian law
- Successfully defended a U.S. chemical manufacturer facing potential liability of $4.5 billion in several East Asian countries

- Achieved favorable decision on behalf of U.S. bank from a South Asian country's banking and securities agencies which declined to bring civil and criminal charges against the bank after its affiliated, South Asian money market fund committed fraud and theft
- Successfully defended Canadian company in U.S. federal trial and appellate courts against novel claim brought by U.S. citizens that Canadian company accused of trafficking in raw materials derived from expropriated property in violation of international law
- Successfully defended Japanese automobile manufacturer in multi-district, product liability class actions in both U.S. state and federal trial and appellate courts
- Represented an East African country before an international arbitral panel charged with delimiting and demarcating an international border
- Advised Southeast Asian government on foreign investment law, legal and regulatory reforms, and international law governing maritime and land borders
- Advised Central Asian government on foreign investment law and legal and regulatory reforms
- Counseled U.S. company on product liability litigation in Nicaragua and enforcement issues in the United States
- Advised European government on European Union accession issues, constitutional reforms, and international legal issues
- Counseled European government on return of stolen antiquities
